IN MEMORY OF . . .

JACK BASS

FOR HIS

SPARKLING HUMOR

DEVOTION TO TEACHING

CONTAGIOUS LOVE OF LIFE

PERSONAL CONCERN FOR OTHERS

WE DEDICATE THIS HIS LAST LINCOLNITE

Down deep in our hearts we know you are gone,
But always your memory will linger on.
You will be missed and thought of each day.
We shall walk into the room where we were greeted so gay,
But no smiling face will be there to say,
"Where have you been?", just an empty chair where you always sat,
And—oh the sorrow of that!

On arriving at school, a teacher's first act is to go to the office to check to see what's new—checking the bulletin board, his mail boxes, and discussing the program for the day.

The corridors are alive with chatter as the students are at their lockers, hurrying in their anxiety for the day to begin. It's rush, rush, rush. Why? So there will be time to check on everyone and everything before the day begins.

Mrs. Eberle and Mr. Lovelace are busy granting absent and tardy permits; Mrs. Kissinger opens the library as the daily search for information begins again.

Classes begin at 8:30 for the students—here they are.

Seniors

DAVID WALTER Director

It has been a busy year for our music department. They have gone to contests both district and state, and were a major part of the Easter Program and have given several assemblies throughout the year. Different ensembles have also gone to sing for some clubs of Lincoln.

The music department has been under the direction of Mr. David Walter. This is Mr. Walter's first year at Lincoln, and he has done a wonderful job with the choruses and ensembles.

G. A. A.

The Girl's Athletic Association of L. C. H. S. sponsored by Mrs. Bonnie Hellhake, is a very popular organization with many girls of the school. Those who enjoy sports attend the activities which are provided for them twice a week for every week in the school year. Metals and letters can be acquired if members collect enough points from attending the activities. Girls who are not participants of the club, and who enjoy having fun and keeping fit, should think about becoming members in the future.

There are fourteen boys in the building trades class and Walter Alde is their instructor. The class is vocational and therefore must put in three hours of work.

The building of the house is a two year project. The boys are divided into pairs, and each pair is assigned to a different room. Every boy has a particular job, and each does it well. The boys do everything from the foundation to the laying of concrete blocks, except the plumbing.

The house is located at 280 South Gate Street in the Mayfair addition. It is a three bedroom house with a bath and a half.

Lincolnite

The Lincolnite is the L. C. H. S. yearbook. The staff consists of a group of students who work diligently under the guidance and supervision of the Lincolnite adviser, Jack Bass. Supervising the distribution of the underclassmen's photographs, managing finances, photographing, mounting pictures, preparing layouts—all of these are a few of the many tasks performed by the Lincolnite staff

Railsplitter

The Railsplitter is the school newspaper which is published monthly. Our faculty advisor, Dale Hansch, guides us on important decisions while editing the paper. Students with better than average writing ability make up the staff. The staff writers also learn the importance of being prompt as it is necessary that they hand in their articles to the editor on time, so the papers deadline can be met.

After the regular school day has been completed and evening darkness prevails, many students return to Lincoln High to pursue their special interests.

Some students take advantage of the opportunity to participate in the numerous sports.

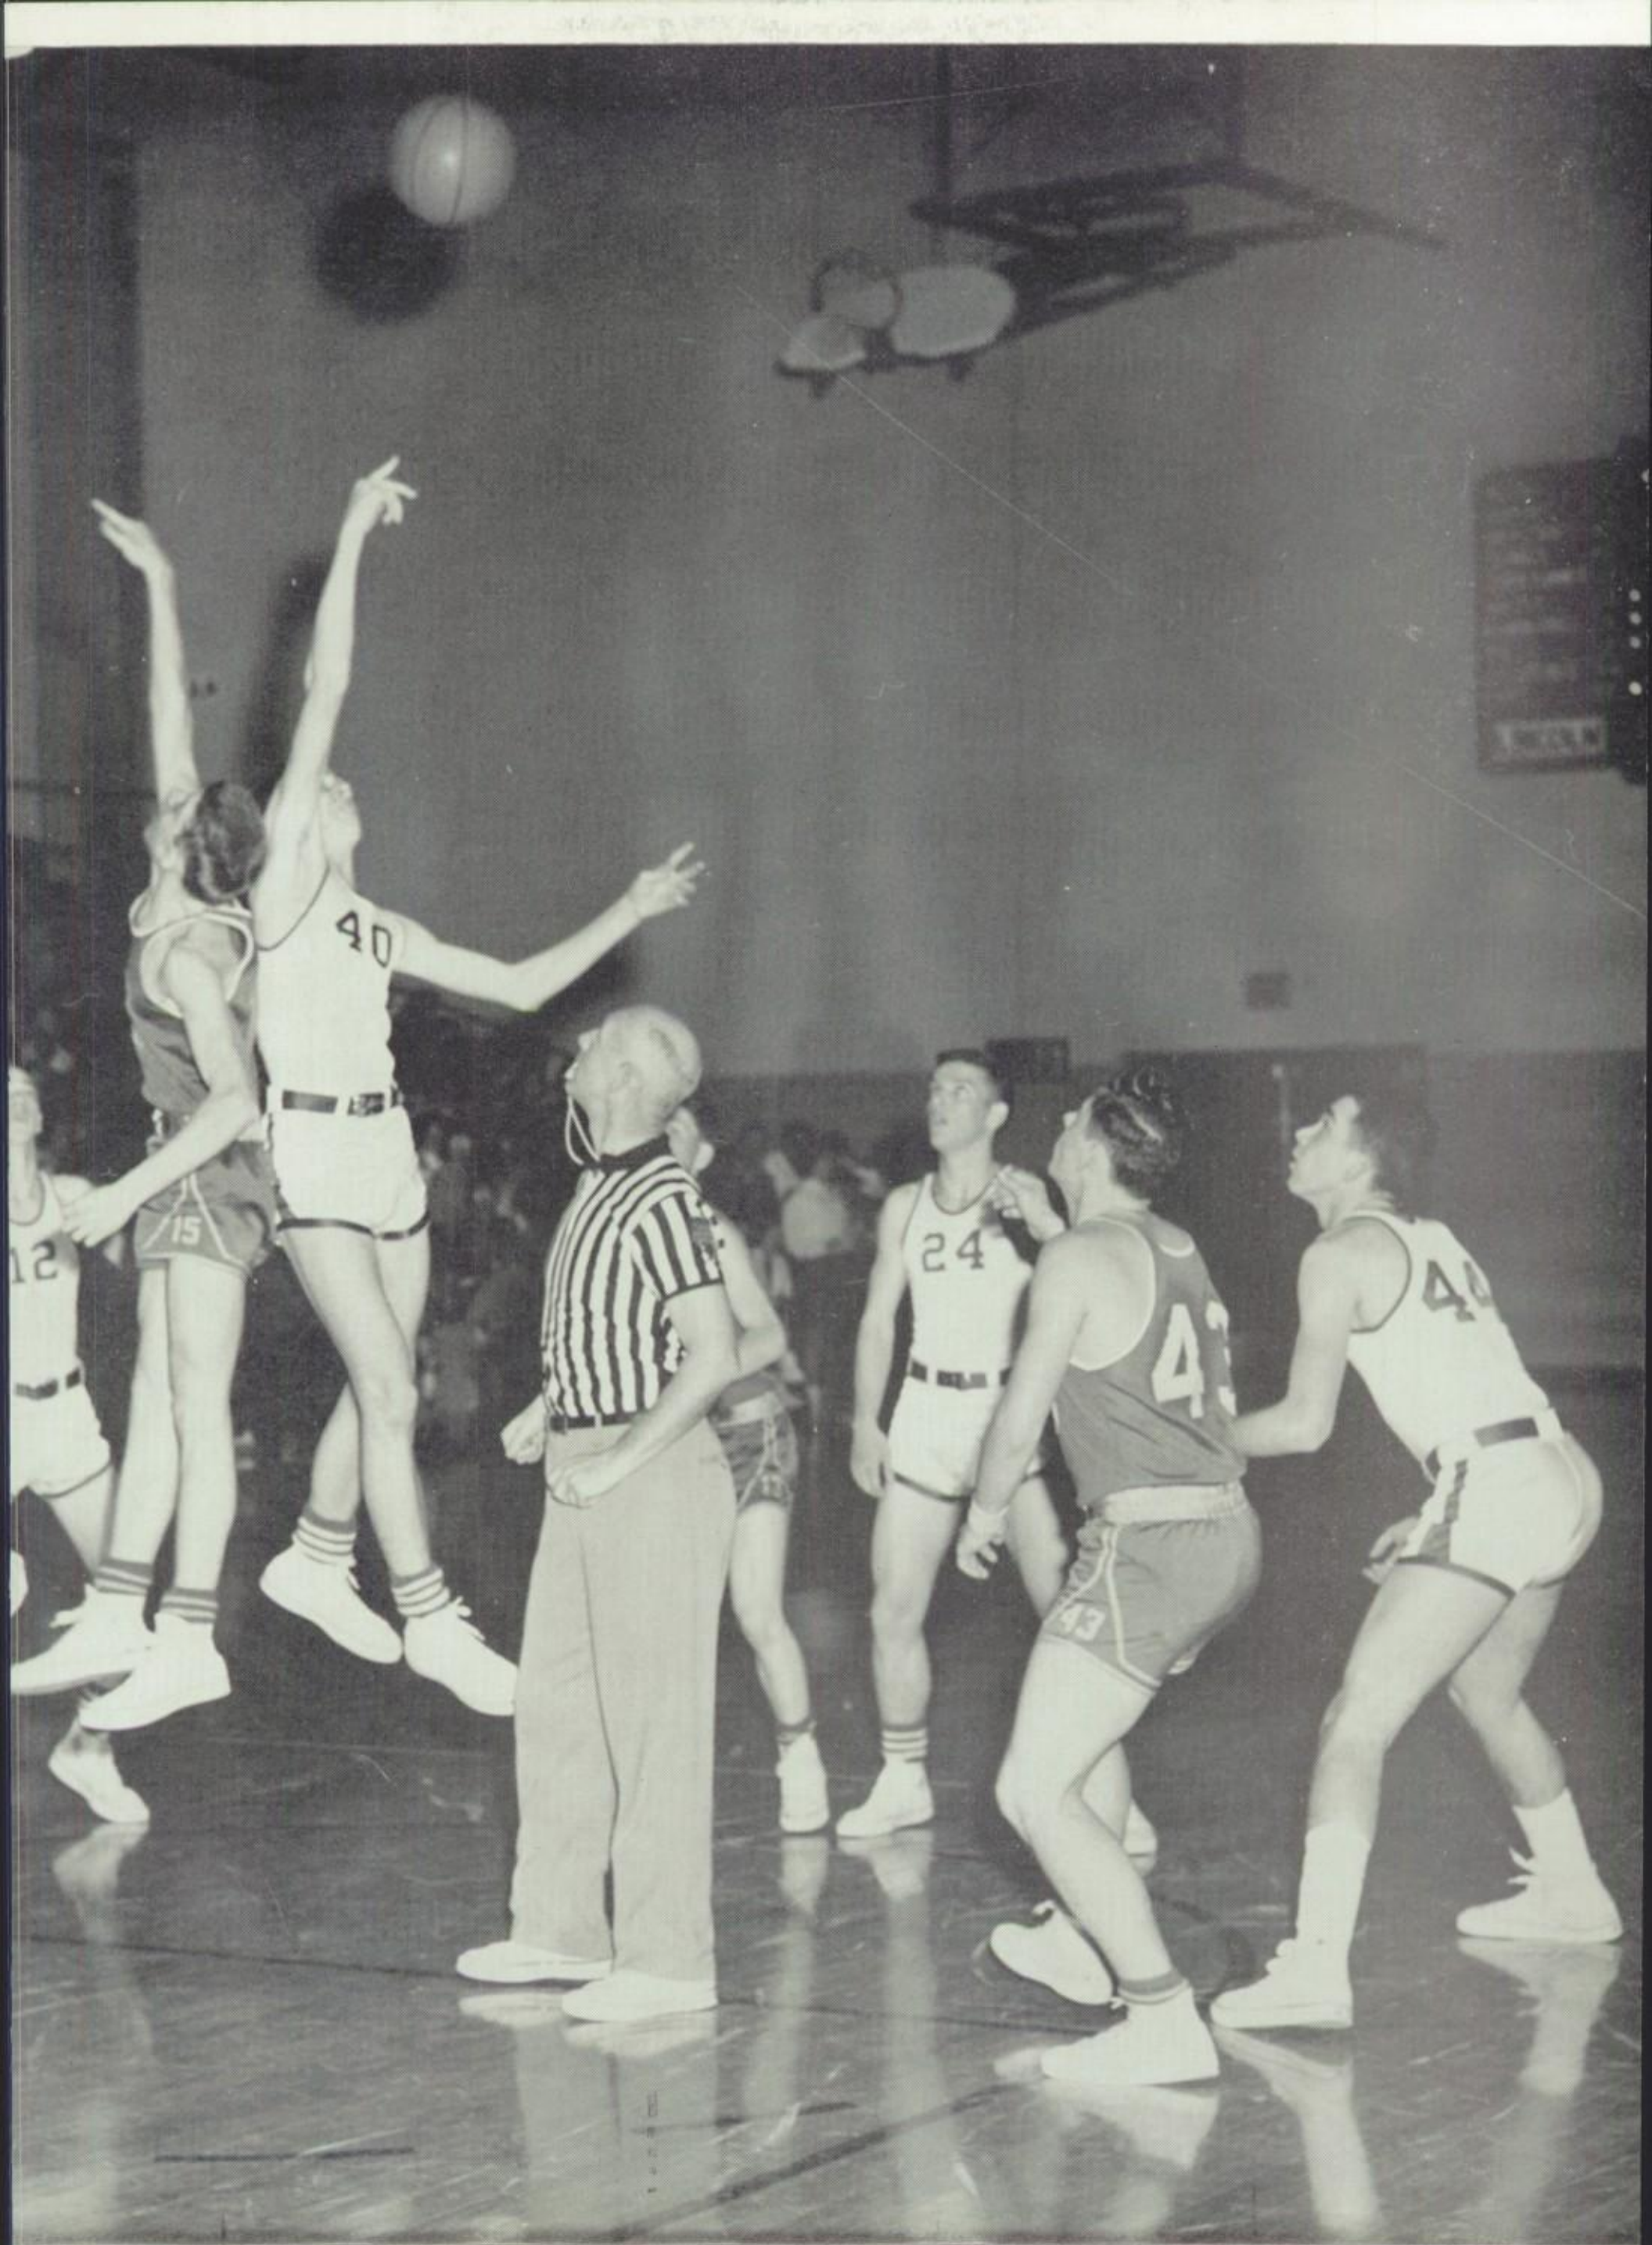

For the sport participates, many hours of hardwork are required to earn a team victory. The student spectators look forward to these events as a time to encourage the team and enjoy the performance of the band.

After the games or on special occasions, dances provide entertainment for any student seeking it.

The dramatics and musical organizations take advantage of the evening hours to rehearse their many presentations.

Our school is seldom vacant, for our students and teachers work together for higher goals.

PROM 1960

The juniors entertained the seniors and guests in the gym on April 22, 1960. The decoration theme was "Stairway to the Stars" and it was beautifully carried out with a stairway to the stars, pale blue walls, and stars suspended from the ceiling. The music was furnished by Al Pearson and his orchestra.

JOE WEBB

Joe Webb, Student Council President, has had one of the most responsible positions held by a L. C. H. S. student. Besides presiding over the council meetings and school assemblies, Joe has introduced many of the following new ideas to our school: an initiation for student council members, a special initiation for the council president, and the reading of the minutes of the council meetings over the intercom.

The leads were Sir Joseph Porter, Joe Webb; Captain Corcoran, John Webb; Ralph Rackstraw, Bob Baker; Dick Deadeye, Gene Gehlbach; Josephine, Pat Kerrigan; Cousin Hebe, Judy Sablotny; and Little Buttercup, Carolyn Yeates.

The accompanist was Rita Eckert. Members of the choir enjoyed presenting the operetta, and it was well received by the audience.
